

Kristina Minor currently serves as Northwestern's Senior Associate Athletics Director for Compliance and Regulatory Affairs. In her role, she oversees the Athletics Compliance Office and serves as the sport administrator for men's and women's tennis. Additionally, she collaborates with Northwestern's Office of Government Relations, General Counsel, and University Compliance to implement policies and procedures to facilitate compliance with federal, state, NCAA, and institutional regulations.

After four years as a tennis student-athlete at the University of Illinois, and earning her law degree, Minor began her professional career at the NCAA, Big Ten Conference, and then Rutgers University prior to arriving at Northwestern.
