

Christian Henze: SVP of Strategy and New Business, Premier League Lacrosse

Christian oversees the PLL's Strategy and New Business arm, and is directly responsible for all initiatives relating to the league's youth operations.

Prior to joining the PLL, Christian worked in the structured credit sector for a FinTech company called Funding Circle, where he led their North American institutional financing platform. As one of the company's first employees, Christian helped architect Funding Circle USA's corporate structure, notably leading the buildout of the organization's Credit and Capital Markets teams.

Christian is a proud Williams College alum, where he was a two sport varsity athlete, including playing on the lacrosse team.
