Matt's work as an organizational psychologist is focused on bridging the gap between what work is and what it could be—where people see their jobs as a source of growth, connection, challenge and fulfillment. He has worked with a variety of organizations including the Los Angeles Lakers, FOX Entertainment Group, FOX Sports, Dropbox, Lyft, Silicon Valley Bank and Blaze Pizza.

Matt holds certifications to administer the MBTI, EQ-I 2.0 and Korn Ferry 360 assessments. He has a decade of experience administering the Gallup Clifton Strengths assessment, DiSC and the TKI conflict modes assessment.

Matt completed his PhD in positive organizational psychology at Claremont Graduate University, where he was awarded the inaugural Mihaly Csikszentmihalyi Dissertation Award for Excellence in Positive Psychology for his research on cultivating Flow in the workplace. He received his BA from the University of Michigan.

Matt is based in Los Angeles where he lives with his wife, baby daughter and two dogs.
