

The Premier Municipal Civic Intelligence Service

Curate empowers professionals to monitor risk and find opportunities in local government discussions at a speed, accuracy, and scale never before possible through the use of advanced artificial intelligence.

Our proprietary AI technology scans through hundreds of thousands of local government meeting minutes and agendas documents, automatically bringing relevant information to your attention.

The local insights you need, put in front of you.

What is it?

Curate diligently scans the websites of local governments throughout the nation and downloads meeting minutes and agendas from various committees, councils, and commissions. It adeptly recognizes pertinent mentions related to the subject matter you need to monitor and presents the results through emailed reports and on a customized dashboard.

Why do you need it?

Local policy change can be costly to your organization — but manually sifting through minutes and agendas to keep up with discussions in every city and county is almost impossible. Curate keeps you in-the-loop on the issues you care about most.

What you get:

Comprehensive coverage of critical issues and opportunities in local government:

- ✓ 12,000+ municipalities
- ✓ 4,000+ school districts
- ✓ 400,000+ meeting minutes & agendas scanned each week
- ✓ 500+ unique policy topics & name recognition
- ✓ 8,600+ localities with stakeholder contact data
