

DAVID HINES BIO

Mr. Hines started his coaching career in 1976 and his teaching career in 1978. David coached Cross Country, Football and Track & Field for eighteen years before moving on to become the Athletic Director at Mountain View High School, the states largest high school for twelve years.

After retiring from Mesa Public Schools, David joined the Arizona Interscholastic Association as a tournament coordinator for the sports of Swim & Dive, Track & Field, Soccer, Volleyball (indoor and beach), and Tennis. In 2015 David became the Assistant Executive Director of the AIA, overseeing bylaw interpretations, State Tournaments and Membership Training.

In 2017, David became the Executive Director of the AIA and manages the Association. Mr. Hines has served on eleven NFHS Committees or Boards including the NFHS HOLDCO Board, and the NFHS Foundation Board, chairing that group in his final year. During his tenure, David has started the Student Leadership Program, Beach Volleyball, girls Wrestling, and girls Flag Football within the AIA.

David has been married to his wife Terry for 39 years has two children, Brent and Jenna and is enjoying his four grandchildren as they are engaged in sports and activities.