

Meghan Watson was appointed as the United States Specialty Sports Association's (USSSA) Chief Operating Officer in July 2023. She is responsible for operations across the organization and leads the team at National Headquarters to support Directors and athletic events across the country and at the 80-acre, Space Coast Complex in Viera, Florida. She was first introduced to USSSA as a consultant in 2017 working on a variety of small projects with previous leadership. Meghan brings over 25 years of consulting experience to the COO position. Prior to joining USSSA, she worked at KPMG and Withum (both professional services firms) where she led a variety of projects related to operational excellence, business transformation, change management and more. Her significant experience with multiple industries, unique business perspective and proven track record where problem solving, and communication skills are critical are highly regarded.

A graduate of Boston College, Meghan returned to New Jersey where she lives with her husband and three kids. She loves to travel – including plenty of trips with her kids for baseball and soccer - and spend time at the beach with family and friends.
