Men's Final Four is 47% Pricier Than Cheapest Ticket for Women's

Recent ticket prices for the women's NCAA basketball tournament have increased by 47% compared to the men's tournament. The cheapest tickets for the men's Final Four are currently at USD 100, whereas the cheapest tickets for the women's Final Four are USD 140. The rise in ticket prices is attributed to the growing interest in women's basketball and the strong performance of teams in the tournament. The increase in ticket prices also highlights the economic impact of women's sports, which is receiving increased attention and support.
