

RACHEL SEEWALD - BIO

Rachel has 33 years of experience in athletic administration at both the high school and collegiate level. For the past 17 years, she has worked at the NCAA, where she currently serves as Director of Championships and Alliances, Playing Rules and Officiating. Prior to that, Rachel worked for the University Interscholastic League (UIL) in Austin for 16 years. The UIL is the governing body for high school sports and extracurricular activities in Texas. In her role at the NCAA, Rachel manages and leads a playing rules team of seven staff and directly oversees the playing rules process for the sports of women's basketball and women's volleyball.

Rachel attended The University of Texas at Austin where she received her Bachelor's degree in Journalism and Master's degree in Educational Administration.